

SOUTH WATERFORD

Death of Willard W. Abbott

Waterford, today, has paused in its many activities and bowed its head in sorrow at the death of one of its most loved and esteemed citizens, Willard W. Abbott. Mr. Abbott was born in Andover, Mass., 21, 1877, the son of Sewall H. and Alfred Lebreton Abbott. When he was eight years old the family moved to Plummer Hill in Waterford where they lived for many years. In 1916, they moved to South Waterford, where they have been connected with the Waterford Creamery.

On Dec. 30, 1905, he married Flora Hennell, who has been privileged to walk life's pathway with him ever since and who has most tenderly and faithfully cared for him during his long illness. Mr. Abbott was a most genial and friendly man. He was known throughout the countryside for his hospitality and always enjoyed the visits of his friends and acquaintances. He was a great lover of nature and country life and delighted in his fine herd of pure bred Jerseys, one of the best herds in the state. He was a member of the Jersey Breeders' Association and until his illness prevented, was a regular attendance at its meetings.

He was always ready and willing to help the needy and suffering and as long as his health permitted, answered the call of a neighbor, whatever time of day or night he was summoned. He was a member of Mr. Thym Lodge, F. & A. M., Valley Spring Lodge, K. of P., and Bear Mr. Grange. He served several years on the board of selectmen.

He is survived by his wife, his mother, his niece, Dorothy Holden, and a son, Mrs. Ethel Burgess, who made her home for many years with them, also one uncle, and many cousins, besides a host of friends, who mourn their loss. His only sister, Mrs. Ida Holden, passed away last November.

During his many months of suffering, he kept his genial personality, never complaining, meeting each day as it came, greeting his friends with his cheery smile and welcome word.

Early Sunday morning, March 13, when his call came to the land, where those who loved him were called to love again, he was ready to answer the call.

Oh, sweetly slake this life of ours, Through age's silver bars, A fading flash on hill and sky, And to the world of stars!

We meet Thee, gracious God, for birth, By which we hither come, We meet Thee for the gate of death, The good man's passage home.

We meet Thee for the heart to feel, And for the eye to see, For faith that reaches over time And grasps eternity.

On softly fade this life of ours, Through age's silver bars, A fading flash on hill and sky, And to the world of stars!

NORTH BRIDGTON

Bridgton Academy

For the third consecutive year Bridgton Academy will be playing for the state championship honors of the Maine Preparatory School when they play in the University of Maine tournament on March 18th and 19th. Four of the leading schools of the state have been invited to play for the state honors on this date. Bridgton thus far has won fourteen games and lost two and the team is considered one of the best to ever represent the school.

Two years ago Bridgton won the State Championship honors in the Prep School Conference and last year they were runners up playing in the finals against E. M. O. S. and lost to the up-state team. Coach Fred "Fish" Ellis this year believes he has the best team of the past three years and is in hopes that the boys will come through on this date with an other crown.

In the preliminary games Bridgton will face Hobson Academy. Kent's 11 will be up against Couburn. The winners will play off on Saturday for the State Prep School title.

The Bridgton five is composed of Captain Harris of Boston and Ralph Hamilton of Fort Fairfield as forwards; Fredrick Lane of Watford, center; Carl Andrews of Gorham, Mass., and John Cash of Dover, N. H., at guards. The reserves all of whom have played in many games this year are Frank Nichols of Tariffville, Conn., John Beckley of Portland, Maurice Averett of Medford, Mass., and Philip Fitzpatrick of Bridgton. This makes boys from four different states on the squad of ten to be taken to the playoffs. The team is coached by Fred "Fish" Ellis, former star four letter man at Tufts College and this is the third successful team he has coached in as many years at Bridgton. The score for the year thus far is:
